Founded in 1843 by Bishop Charles de Forbin Janson. It is the official agency of the Church by which Catholic children of the world contribute through their prayers and sacrifices to the welfare of other children in more than 100 mission countries. Since its beginning, it has become the personal favor of every Pope. In 1926, Pope Pius XI elevated the Society to Pontifical rank. Holy Childhood endeavors to attain its ends through the united efforts of all Catholic children who are taught to recognize that sensitivity to others is an essential dimension of Christianity. Funds are distributed annually to every part of the mission world by a Pontifical Commission, including allotments being provided for the Home Missions of the United States. All allocations sent to the Missions through the agency of the Holy Childhood are used solely in the interests of the children of these missions. In this way, the worldwide membership of the Association each year supports and educates over 1,000,000 children throughout the world and is officially established in 175 Archdioceses and Dioceses of the country where local directors are in charge.
